PCC Posting Guidelines

Pitt Community College (PCC)'s online recruiting system, Bruiser's Briefcase, is an opportunity for employers to post full-time and part-time jobs and internships which will be viewable by current students and alums. The Career Services office will not share personal contact information unless prior permission has been granted.

You, the employer, agree to only use students' Personally Identifiable Information (PII) to contact them about posted employment opportunities. PCC will not be held liable for the misuse of students' PII, and legal action against the employer will be taken in such cases.

1. All job postings must be for legitimate openings. No multi-level marketing jobs, door-to-door sales, home-based businesses, or "business opportunity" postings are allowed. These would include jobs which do not have set hourly wages or annual salaries but rather are only supplying information.
2. The job title, description and requirements must be included. Organizations must identify themselves and the location of the position(s) (i.e., NY-New York City, IL-Chicago, Nationwide).
3. Third party recruiters, search firms, employment consultants, and placement services must identify themselves as such and must not require a placement fee from the student. Adherence to the NACE Principles for Professional Conduct for Career Services and Employment Professional Conduct is required.
4. Experience levels expected must be listed, as well as specific desired talents.
5. A statement to the fact that the employer is an "Equal Opportunity Employer" must be included. No postings will be allowed for an employer who does not follow equal opportunity practices.
6. HTML is not allowed.
7. Only hyperlinks directing students and alums to the employer's website are allowed.
8. Contact information must be kept current and available to the Career Services staff along with additional contact data (address, phone, email).
9. It is the responsibility of the employer to cancel a posting if the job has been filled.
10. Jobs can be posted for up to 6 months and will be deactivated on the expiration date. You will be notified when the posting is about to expire and it is the responsibility of the employer to renew the posting, if desired, by changing the expiration date
11. The PCC Career Services office reserves the right to determine if a posting is in violation of the guidelines. Postings that are in violation of our guidelines are subject to being removed immediately and without prior notice.
