

NEW!

BioWork Certificate Program

Learn the foundational skills you need to begin a career as a process technician for a biotechnology, pharmaceutical, or chemical manufacturing company.

JAN. 28 - MAY 3

Tuesdays - Thursdays

6pm - 10pm

Williams Building, Room 229

PCC Campus

Registration Fee: $250

NCRC is a prerequisite

INFO SESSION:

JAN. 13 · 6pm - 8pm

What is a Process Technician?

- Operates, monitors, and controls the production process.
- Receives, transports, and stores materials.
- Collects and analyzes materials used in production.
- Inspects and maintains the production equipment and control systems.
- Keeps critical records on the process and product.
- Maintains company safety, health, and environmental standards.

For registration information, call 252.493.7885.

For more information about the BioWork Program visit <https://www.ncbionetwork.org/biowork>.