Education & Childhood Development EDU 149 Autism Technical Concepts	Melissa Rees (252) 493-7276 mdrees975@my.pittcc.edu	05-20-2024

Students completing the EDU 149 Autism Technical Concepts course as part of their AAS in Early Childhood Education Career Track, Autism Certificate or as a Special Credit Course will be prepared to sit for the Registered Behavioral Technician (RBT) Examination, a Nationally Recognized paraprofessional certification in behavior analysis. The examination is provided through the Behavior Analyst Certification Board, Inc. (BACB). The RBT certification programs are accredited by the National Commission for Certifying Agencies (NCCA), the accreditation body of the Institute for Credentialing Excellence (ICE). The BACB currently accepts certification applications from individuals who reside in the United States (US), Canada, Australia, and the United Kingdom (UK).

To apply you must meet the following eligibility requirements:

- be at least 18 years old
- have completed high school-level education or equivalent
- pass a criminal background check and an abuse registry check
- obtain 40 hours of qualified training (provided through enrollment in EDU 149)
- successfully complete an RBT initial competency assessment (provided through enrollment in EDU 149)
- submit an RBT certification application
- Once your application is approved, you must pass the RBT certification examination

For more information, please see the Registered Behavior Technician Handbook.
